JANUARY

It's January and it's time to explore new quilting techniques and get your new projects lined up!

We have all kinds of new happenings around the shop to fill your quilting needs.

Beginning January 2, we're going to have

"Saturday Sew" an opportunity to bring in your project and sewing machine to sew with others. Saturday Sew costs $15 and you must sign up in advance to assure your spot.

Welcome

We would also like to welcome two new faces to the shop. Debbie Rieck and Kaci Kendziorski are going to be working part time in the shop. Many of you already know Debbie. She's helped at the shop when we've gone out of town and she's a familiar face in the quilting world. Debbie will not only be working in the shop, but she's agreed to teach a few classes for us. Kaci will be helping on Saturdays. You probably haven't met Kaci yet as she's new to the shop, but she's got youth and excitement going for her!

Coming in February, Joanne will be teaching a Mystery Quilt event. It's a little soon to be writing about this event, but we want to make sure you have the opportunity to sign up for this February 13th event. There are only 6 spots left. This is the only time it will be offered. If you've been involved in a mystery quilt before, you know that often the fabrics chosen for the project may not be fabrics you'd choose. That's why this mystery is soooo good! We give you a supply list and you choose the fabrics you prefer! The mystery is what the quilt will look like when it's done. They mystery is called "Mystery at the Altar".

Those of you who do home schooling, check out the Friday "Home School" class with Edna. This class is for students 8-15 years of age. They must have their own sewing machines.

New Fabrics Continue to Arrive!

The Luna Moth line from Michael Miller includes very bright and colorful fabrics, including a large daisy. Very fun!

Moda has come out with a new line by Sandy Gervais called L'amour. If you're thinking about making yourself (or a loved one!) a Valentine's Day quilt, these pretty reds are sure to be a hit!

Urban Green is one of those lines that just makes you happy! This line is by Fabri-Quilt and is another bright and fun fabric for your next quilt project.
