"The Quilting Nookletter"

March 2010

The Quilting Nook 103 W. South Main St,

Spring is coming...???

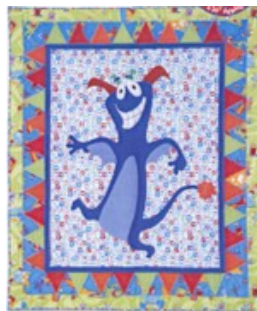

After the weather we've had in January and February, we're hoping the lion will stop roaring and March will come in like a lamb and stay that way!

But even the weather can't deter quilters from our fabric and inspiration finding quests. Even to the point of coming to the Mystery Event with 5 inches of snow on the ground! We had such fun with the class and everyone solved the mystery.

Because our event was such a huge success, we're going to offer another Mystery (different quilt) Event on May 8 from 10-4pm. There are only 6 spots available, so sign up soon to guarantee your space.

Floogie has arrived!

And what's a Floogie? Floogie is the dancing (get it? doing the Boogie?) Boogie Monster adorning this delightful children's quilt.

We have the Floogie patterns and have made kits using the fabric line "Boogie Monsters" by Free Spirit. Floogie is constructed of Moda "Snuggles" which feels like Minkee! Floogie is destined to dance his way into any child's heart! We have kits available!

Two new fabric lines herald the beginning of Summer! Bar Harbor, by Moda, is a beautiful red, white, and blue line that is not only nautical, but is floral, too. It is reminiscent of days at the beach!

Designed by Minnick and Simpson, this line is sure to make its way into your Summer quilt!

Another new Summer line is called "Sweet Liberty" by P&B Textiles. This red, white, and blue line is bursting with fun flowers, stripes, stars and explosions.

And, of course, we have oodles and oodles of new batiks!

Friday, March 5 marks our first Waxhaw First Friday event! Not only will we be open until 8pm for your shopping pleasure, but we're hosting an evening of Open Sew from 5-8pm (bring your own project) and Mrs. Edna Drakeford will be in the shop with her Underground Railroad quilt, giving lectures on its importance in history.
